COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Attendance: Be on time for class. Students are allowed two absences according to Gavilan College policy. If class is missed a third time, the student will be dropped from the course. Avoid being absent or tardy on an exam day or when an assignment is due. If you come to class after roll call, be sure to see me at the end of class so I can mark you as present. Students’ with perfect attendance (never absent, tardy, leave early, or exit class during class time from the first day of class) will receive a half grade boost to their final grade. Keep track of your attendance.

Classroom Etiquette/Participation: All electronic devices (e.g., cell phone, laptop, iPad, iPod) must be turned off (no texting, tweeting, checking/sending e-mail, surfing the Internet, listening to music, playing computer games) and put away (out of sight) during class time unless being used for typing lecture notes. When not typing lecture notes, the device must be face down. The first breach of any of these requirements will result in a warning. The second breach will result in the device no longer being allowed in the classroom. No recording of the lectures is permitted unless deemed necessary by the Disability Resource Center. When your name is called during roll call, raise your hand high and shout “here” so I can be sure to mark you present. Please respect others’ beliefs, feelings, etc. in class—just as you would like others to do for you. Avoid self-disclosing or asking how to handle De-personal problems in class or in my office (contact the Gavilan College Counseling Department or a mental health center). No eating or drinking (except water) is permitted in class. Refrain from using class time to copy notes from a missed class. Children can’t be allowed in the classroom (be sure to see me before inviting visitors). Sit close to the front of the class, and come prepared to participate in order to maximize learning (speak clearly and loud enough to be understood). Students with regular quality class participation (don’t overdo it) will have five bonus points added to their lowest exam score.

Critical Thinking Questions (CTQs): Students must type an answer to one or more CTQs for each of the 14 chapters. The answers should be single-spaced and typed in Times New Roman 12-font. The CTQs will be posted online at least a week before they’re due. Each CTQ answer should be typed on a separate sheet of paper. If you turn in more than one CTQ answer at a time, staple them all together. Steps to typing strong CTQ answers: (1) read the CTQs carefully, (2) read the chapter carefully that the CTQs come from, (3) take time to think about and formulate your CTQ answers, (4) type your answers up according to the instructions on the CTQs website, (5) type only what directly and specifically answers the CTQ, (6) don’t wait until the last minute to do the CTQs—have them printed out, and ready to turn in no later than the night before they’re, and (7) be sure to check your CTQs answers before you turn them in to make certain that you’ve followed the instructions. Lack of a textbook isn’t a legitimate excuse for not turning in assignments on time. A CTQ example answer is on my website. CTQ answers must be turned in before roll call is completed and stapled if necessary to be accepted. Take the quizzes throughout the textbook to facilitate chapter understanding.

Research Paper: Students are required to type a 10 (full) to 12 page research paper on a topic in psychology (see Instructions for the 10 to 12 Page Research Paper below).

METHODS OF EVALUATION—keep track of your points/grades

Examinations: Exam 1 will cover chapters 1, 11, 4 and 3, exam 2, chapters 5, 6, 7, 2, and 8, and the final exam (Monday, May 20 at 10:30 a.m.), chapters 9, 10, 12, 13 and 14, and pulling it all together. Exams 1 and 2 will start at 12:50 p.m. If late for any of the three exams, the exam can’t be taken. All three exams will include a combination of short answer, essay, multiple choice and true and false items from the lecture notes, CTQs, textbook, small group work, and discussions. Start studying for the exams the day you first receive notes for a particular exam, so that cramming and stressing out can be avoided, and learning and grade satisfaction are maximized. Bring a large (11” x 8.5”) green book to each exam day. NO make-up exams or extra credit assignments are available.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE 10 TO 12 PAGE RESEARCH PAPER
PSYC 1A Introduction to Psychology
Spring 2013

Your research paper should cover a topic in psychology of interest to you. The ideas for your research paper must come from the textbook. Your research paper title must be cleared by me face-to-face before you start working on your paper through bringing a list of five research titles to me (with your name on it) written down according to the phrasing of the Example PSYC 1A Research Paper Titles on my website (don’t choose your title from this list—they’re just examples). Bring your textbook with you to show me where in it you got the ideas for your five research titles. After I approve your research title, you can turn in a research title card. The research title card (3” x 5”) should contain the information listed on the “Research Title Card Example” below. The card must be turned in correctly filled out by Monday, February 25 before roll call is completed. If the card isn’t turned in by this date and/or done correctly, you won’t earn any points on it and five points will be deducted from your research paper. Once your approved title card is turned in, you have one week to determine if there are enough empirical research articles (all contain a Method and Results section) available to write a research paper on it. If there aren’t enough empirical research articles on your title, you’ll have to come up with another title and approve it with me by the end of that week. Be sure to make a copy of the final title card approved (worth up to 5 pts) for yourself. Your research paper title drives your paper—ONLY WRITE ABOUT WHAT YOUR TITLE SAYS.

The research paper should be 10 (full) to 12 double-spaced pages long; not including the cover sheet or references page(s). Make sure to number your pages in the upper right-hand corner (the first page number begins on the page where you start writing about Why I Chose to Write on My Topic, and the last page number ends on the last page of your references list). You must have a minimum of seven (7) differently named references (journals), all of the articles in them must be empirical research articles, and at least two thirds of the references (journals) must be dated 2000 or later. Only articles where an author and its origin can be cited can be used in the research paper. PLEASE READ the PSYC 1A Research Papers and References List Examples on my website MULTIPLE TIMES to be clear on what your research paper should look like. Make sure to consult the American Psychological Association (APA) Formatting and Style Guide and APA Citation Examples links on my website for additional details regarding how your research paper should be written. Also, I encourage you to use the Writing Center for help in writing your research paper. The research paper must be original research; not a rewritten paper from this class or another class, or from someone who wrote the paper for you, and must be printed out in Times New Roman 12-font. Two copies of the research paper and a copy of only those pages from the articles used to write your paper (stapled in alphabetical order with the information from the articles used in the paper highlighted in yellow) must be turned in by Monday, April 1 before roll call is completed—absolutely no excuses. Make sure to write the citations for the articles you use on the first page at the very top of the articles you turn in (if this information isn’t already provided). All material must be placed in a 10” x 13” manila envelope with your name on it. Five points will be added to papers turned in at least a week early by 12:50 p.m.—you are VERY STRONGLY encouraged you to schedule the research paper due at least a week early to earn the bonus five points. You can gather articles for your research paper from Ebscohost or other data bases through the Gavilan College library. Contact the staff at the library NOW for access to Ebscohost and other data bases, and for help in researching your topic. Students are required to complete LIB 736 Develop a Research Topic. You have three weeks once the online class is opened to successfully complete all six modules. Failure to complete LIB 736 will result in five points being deducted from your research paper. Also, there’s an excellent online tutorial on Researching Empirical Studies (articles) for PSYC 1A/1B on the Gavilan College Library website.
There are five sections in the research paper: (1) Why I chose to Write on My Topic (worth up to 5 pts.), (2) What the Research Says About My Topic (worth up to 50 pts.) should describe the topic you’re writing on, and present the information, theories, findings, citations, etc. related to your topic and make up the majority of the pages in your paper (don’t put any personal or treatment statements in this section)—PUT ONLY WHAT THE RESEARCH SAYS IN THIS SECTION, (3) What I Learned Personally, Interpersonally and Professionally (worth up to 10 pts.), (4) How I plan to Apply What I Learned Personally, Interpersonally and Professionally (worth up to 10 pts.), and lastly, the (5) References page(s) (worth up to 20 pts.). The first, third and fourth sections of your research paper should take up no more than three pages combined. The cover sheet of your research paper should have your research paper title, your name, my title and last name, the class title and meeting days and times, Gavilan College, and the date the paper was handed in all centered (see cover sheet example below). PLEASE take time to CHECK/REVIEW YOUR RESEARCH PAPER against the Outline for the 10 to 12 Page Research Paper and Checklist for the 10 to 12 Page Research Paper below, and the Example PSYC Research Papers on my website before you turn it in to make certain that you’ve followed ALL of the instructions so that learning is maximized and valuable points aren’t lost.
